

MEDIATION: The Role of Lawyers

Friday, 24 April 2015, 9am – 3pm
Law School of Tanzania, Dar es Salaam

Program Objectives: This training is about the role of lawyers in the mediation process. As a result of this training, participants will be able to:

1. Overview of the mediation process and its application in Tanzania context
2. Gain insights as to the role of lawyers in Mediation and demonstrate an understanding of key aspects of the role of lawyers in mediation.
3. Ethical issues for lawyers in the Mediation Process

Target audience: All local professionals involved in dispute resolution specifically mediation: intended for lawyers who represent parties in mediation and also in-house counsels, mediators, magistrates, judges, academics, students and everyone interested by this subject.

Facilitator: Ms. Madeline Kimei is an Advocate, Mediator and Dispute Resolution Consultant through Resolution Experts an organization that she founded in 2014.

CLE and Certificates: Upon successful completion of this program, you will receive a Certificate of Completion. Certificates are distributed at the end of the program. This program has been approved by the Tanganyika Law Society and carries two (2) continuing legal education (CLE) points.

Application & Fees: The participants shall register through Resolution Experts by returning the attached application form scanned to info@resolutionexperts.co.tz and copy of payment receipt of TZS 200,000/= which may be deposited to our CRDB Bank Plc; Account Name: RESOLUTION EXPERTS CO. LTD; Account Number: 0150303287100 Sort Code: CoRUTZTZ OR MPESA to 0764 810080.

For inquires call 0764810080

