IBA Outstanding Young Lawyer Award – call for nominations

This year during the International Bar Association (IBA) 2020 Annual Conference, to be held 1–6 November in Miami, the IBA's Young Lawyers' Committee, will present the IBA Outstanding Young Lawyer Award in recognition of William Reece Smith Jr to a young lawyer who has shown not only excellence in their work and achievements in their career to date, but also a commitment to professional and ethical standards as well as a commitment to the larger community.

Nominees will be considered on the following criteria:

- professional excellence;
- a reputation for, or advancement of, legal ethics and professional responsibility;
- service to the community – local and further afield; and
- other merits similar to the above or considered relevant by the candidate or his/her nominators, such as an innovative approach to their legal practice, including, but not restricted to, pro bono work.

There is no charge for nomination. It is open to all lawyers up to and including the age of 35, whether or not they are members of the IBA.

The winner will receive:

- a free registration for the IBA 2020 Annual Conference, 1 – 6 November 2020, Miami.
- a contribution from LexisNexis towards accommodation and travel costs to attend the conference.
- one years' free membership of the IBA and Young Lawyers' Committee.

IBA Pro Bono Award – call for nominations

This year during the International Bar Association (IBA) 2020 Annual Conference, to be held 1–6 November in Miami, the IBA's Pro Bono Committee will honour a lawyer who has shown an outstanding commitment to pro bono work as part of their legal career.

Nominees will be considered on the following criteria:

- Dedication – The Committee seeks to recognise pro bono work that exhibits an exceptional level of commitment and dedication to the provision of free legal services and access to justice.
- Innovation – The Committee seeks to recognise efforts and pro bono work that have been designed or carried out in an innovative fashion and might serve as a model for others in that jurisdiction and other jurisdictions.
- Impact – The Committee seeks to recognise work, including legislative reform, litigation, and transactional representation, that has brought about a significant impact – to an individual, community, group, or country, or to the provision of pro bono services generally.

There is no charge for nomination. It is open to all lawyers, whether or not they are members of the IBA.

The winner will receive:

- a free registration for the IBA 2020 Annual Conference, 1–6 November 2020, Miami.
- a contribution from LexisNexis towards accommodation and travel costs to attend the conference.
- one year's free membership of the IBA and Pro Bono Committee.
